Police Release Photos of Suspect and Vehicle in HCC Stabbing

Howard County Police are releasing photos today of a suspect who stabbed a female employee at Howard County Community College in Columbia on Monday. Gilbert Lee Redmond, Jr., 29 (DOB: 3-6-75), of an undetermined address in Baltimore, attacked the 26-year-old woman, a former girlfriend, around 4 p.m. The victim, who will not be identified, suffered multiple stab wounds to the head. Her current status will not be released, but police have confirmed that her injuries were not life threatening.

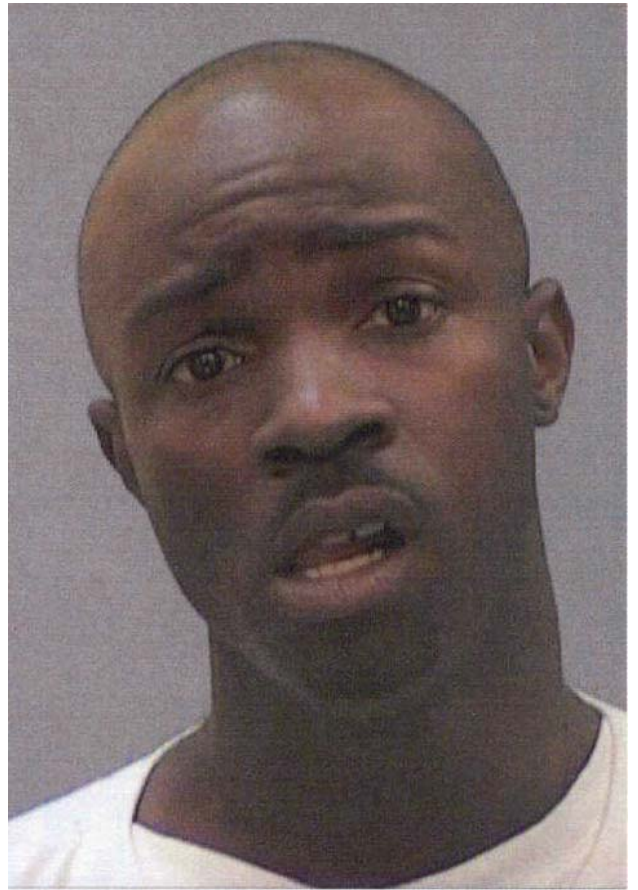

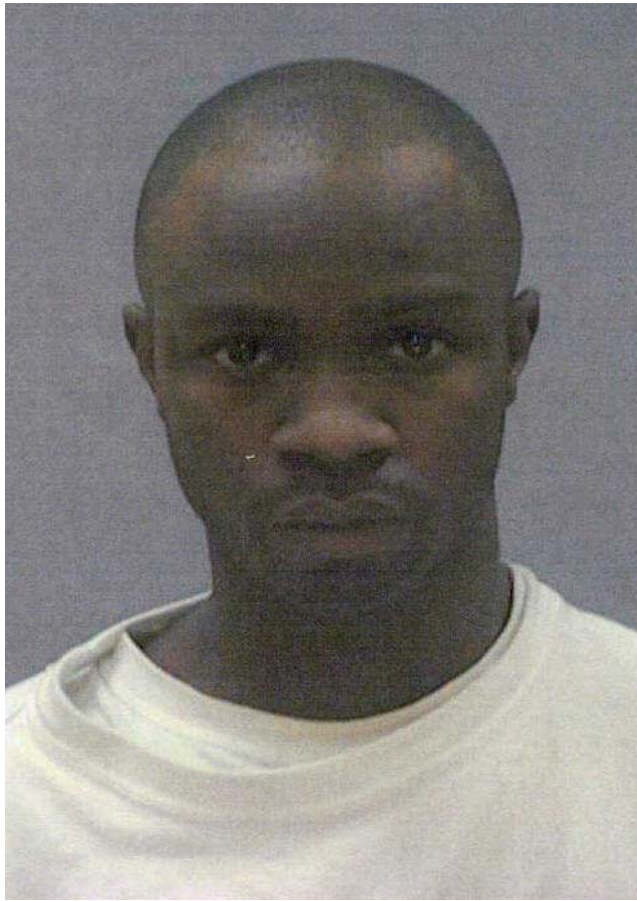

Investigators are seeking information about Redmond's whereabouts. He was last seen fleeing the scene in a burgundy 2000 Saturn SL, 4-door, with Maryland Registration LLZ-499. Police are releasing a photo of a vehicle similar to the one being driven by Redmond.

Anyone who sees Redmond or the vehicle or has other information about this case is urged to call 911 immediately. Citizens can view the photos at the Howard County Police Department's Web site, www.hcpd.org.
